

Punctuation Pits

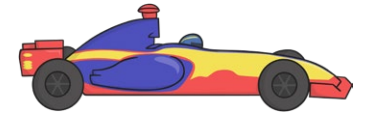

To use capital letters and punctuation to show where sentences begin and end.

START

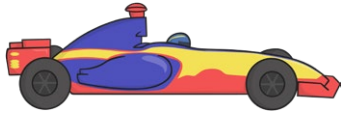

FINISH

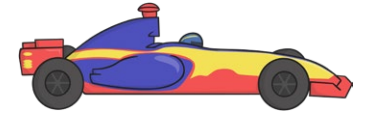

1. The pit lane is where important changes are made during a motor race. Bring these sentences into the pits to fix them. Add a capital letter and either a full stop, exclamation mark or a question mark. How many points can you score? An example has been done for you what colour are your shoes	What colour are your shoes?

1 point for each correct capital letter	Total = 1
1 point for each correct punctuation mark	Total = 1

START

FINISH

will we get there on time
help, I can't swim
my jumper is red
quick, get out of the way
what colour is it
it is nice in the woods
we will get there before it starts
can you type quickly
1 point for each correct capital letter	Total =
1 point for each correct punctuation mark	Total =

will we get there on time	Will we get there on time? help, I can't swim	Help, I can't swim!
my jumper is red	My jumper is red. quick, get out of the way	Quick, get out of the way! what colour is it	What colour is it?
is it nice in the woods	It is nice in the woods.
we will get there before it starts	We will get there before it starts.
can you type quickly	Can you type quickly?
1 point for each correct capital letter	Total = 6
1 point for each correct punctuation mark	Total = 6